GET TOGETHER

The Classik Hotel Magdeburg enjoys a quiet location at the southern edge of its medieval home on the Elbe. Close to the city's main traffic arteries, the hotel is easy to reach from all over Germany. Together with its outstanding amenities, that makes it the perfect location for your next event – whether personal or professional. Seven meeting and conference rooms with a total area of almost 300 m² provide ample space for professional get-togethers and private celebrations – and our 33 single and 76 double rooms offer accommodation for multi-day events.

Once your conference guests have worked up an appetite, we offer a full range of food and drinks. Whether a package of meals throughout the day, or individually selected dishes that take food intolerances, diets and preferences into account, we are happy to meet the specific needs of every guest.
